Discovery Reconciliation Commitment Statement

waranta (we) acknowledge the Traditional Owners and Custodians of the land, the palawa and pakana, and pay respect to the Elders past, present and emerging, for they hold the memories, traditions and hopes for future generations. We recognise that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are connected to the oldest continuing cultures on the planet and have nurtured the land on which we learn, play and grow since creation.

Together waranta (we) are committed to respectfully acknowledging the truths and histories of the Traditional Owners and Custodians of lands across Australia. Our journey of cultural awareness inspires acceptance, inclusion and a strong sense of belonging for all children, families and our community.

We take pride in our relationships with and connections to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and value their knowledge, stories, language and guidance. Through nature we will continue to educate children to care for Country, respect and protect the land for future generations.

waranta takara milaythina nara takara waranta putiya nayri, nara laymi krakapaka waranta tu manta waranta tu manta waranta tunapri nara.

We walk where they once walked and their absence saddens us, but they will never be dead for us as long as we remember them.
