Easter Celebrations

We'll get our creative hats on and make our own wooden Easter egg baskets in the morning, which you'll be able to use in the afternoon to collect your eggs in the Easter egg hunt!

In the kitchen we'll make some delicious truffles and decorate some biscuits with icing.

And at the art table we'll attempt some origami, of your choice.

Let's explore outside and go on a nature walk, collecting things as we go along to be able to make some wonderful nature craft. We'll spend some time exploring, climbing and relaxing in the natural environment.

*Pack: Lunch, water drink bottle

Milpara Project Day

Today we are going to be engaging in 3 different projects that will be utilised within the Milpara building.

Project 1: Scooter Holder

Our scooters are often lying on the floor, so we've come up with a brilliant idea to make a scooter stand that will sit next to our bike racks.

Project 2: Milpara Banner

We completed a Milpara banner last year, let's make another one to include all our new children. You may draw anything that you think represents Milpara, let's work together to see what we can create.

Project 3: Portable Garden Beds

To give our room a little uplift, we thought it would be wonderful to make some portable garden beds.

Pack: Lunch, water drink bottle and a sun safe hat

Slime Challenge!

It's time to get messy! We would recommend some old clothes to participate in our Slime Challenge and powder paint fun.

In the morning we are heading over to Kookaburra to challenge our friends in a Slime Challenge.

Back at Milpara we will engage in some powder paint play.

To ensure you're not going home a complete mess we'll enjoy some water play.

Bus departs 9:30am
Returning 2pm

Pack: Old clothing for challenge and spare clothes to change into, towel and plastic bag, lunch, water drink bottle and a sun safe hat
